

Grounded Theory Jamboree IV: “Uncorking the Grounded Theory Experience”

Calgary, Alberta, Canada
Wednesday August 5 to Friday August 7, 2009

Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Facilitator: Paul Wishart, PhD, MA

Minimum enrollment 12, maximum 24.

Fee: Students	$350 (CDN) before June 5, 2009 $400 (CDN) after June 5
Faculty, Researchers and Clinicians	$500 (CDN) before June 5, 2009 $600 (CDN) after June 5

Location: Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Feel free to contact Paul Wishart for more info

E-mail: pmwishart@shaw.ca

Phone: (403) 208-3431

Note: Participants are invited to share their “Grounded Theory” research difficulties or hot spots as contributions to the workshop agenda.

Presentation topics:

- Hotspot GT topics emerging:
 - Interviewing
 - Dealing with preconceptions; e.g. Worrisome Accuracy, Forcing, Rhetorical wrestling
 - Framing GT research for scientific, ethics, and funding review/evaluation
 - +/- Mentoring
- Presentation of participants’ research
- Opportunities for one-to-one consultations on GT Problems and Opportunities
- Networking opportunities; mentoring, collaborating, buddying, and associated resources

Who should attend?

1. Graduate students considering, or working with, Grounded Theory as their thesis research methodology
2. Qualitative and Quantitative researchers interested in cultivating their exploratory methodological expertise
3. Clinical practitioners interested in research and evaluation methodology; from research applications to research reports
4. Researchers, clinicians and policy makers involved in Knowledge translation and evaluation