

H. (38) – Precariousness Path – Retailing Company

Lived Life – Stages and States					Turning points?		Objectives	Sensitized Life Course
Age	Year	Stages	Labour situation (state)	Training (state)	Other events/ Family events	Subjective significant events	Intentions and preferences related to the functionings in next stage	Resources (institutional intervention)	Conversion factors	Capabilities (increased or decreased set of options after intervention)	Functioning (chosen option for next stage)
14	1985	1. End of compulsory education		Individual Training: dressmaking			Finding a job			[Increased options of employment]	Working
15	1986	2. First payed work (4 years)	Job 1: shirt factory				She didn't like her job			[Experience accumulated on labour market] [Right to receive the unemployment benefit]	Unemployment and training
19	1990	3. First unemployment period	Unemployment 1	Occupational training: dressmaking Individual Training: hairdresser				Occupational training (PSE) Contributive benefit (rights of access)		[Increased options of employment] [Increased options of training]	Working
20	1991	4. Second paid work	Job 2: shirt factory		child 1					[Right to receive the unemployment benefit]	Unemployment and training
21	1992	5. Second unemployment period	Unemployment 2	Individual Training: Graduado Escolar (formal training)				Contributive benefit (rights of access)	Unemployment benefit (conditions of use)	[Increased options of employment] [Increased options of training]	Working
24	1995	6. Third paid work	Job 3: Car factory							[Right to receive the unemployment benefit]	Unemployment
27	1998	7. Third unemployment period	Unemployment 3					Contributive benefit (rights of access)	Unemployment benefit (conditions of use)		Working
28	1999	8. Fourth paid job	Job 4: Hairdresser's			Professional significant Event	She needed a job with better wage				Working
30	2001	9. Fifth paid job	Job 5: Car factory							[Right to receive the unemployment benefit]	Unemployment and training