

| | MILGRAM | ZIMBARDO | HUMPHREYS | ROSENHAN | LEO |
|--|--|---|--|---|--|
| Awards, prizes, other recognition | Prize, American Association for the Advancement of Science, 1964 | Testimony, Abu Ghraib court martial defense, 2004 | C. Wright Mills Book Award, American Sociological Association, 1969 | -- | 2010 Edwin H. Sutherland Outstanding Scholarship Award, Society for the Study of Social Problems; 2010 Outstanding Book Award, Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences; 2009 Herbert Jacob Book Prize, Law and Society Association; 2009, Honorable Mention, Distinguished Scholarship Award, Pacific Sociological Association |
| Contribution: to betterment of society | Understanding of authority relations; training to question authority | Abu Ghraib testimony | Greatly improved public policies, police practices with respect to gay men | First crack in DSM: rethought diagnoses | Ethical investigative interviewing: the impact of Miranda , false confessions, wrongful conviction of the innocent |

| | MILGRAM | ZIMBARDO | HUMPHREYS | ROSENHAN | LEO |
|--|--|------------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Contribution: to theoretical understanding | Relations to authority; in psychology, several social sciences | Situational and systemic ethics | Sociology of deviance | Labeling theory | Fifth Amendment scholarship |
| Contribution: to methods/ methodology | Use of debriefing in psychology | -- | Studying deviant groups | Pseudo-patient approach | Researcher privilege |

Table 3: Beneficence across the five studies